Dear [REDACTED]

Your request for information was received on 21st September 2022 and was dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Please be advised that the Business Services Organisation (BSO) has now completed its search for the information you requested with regards to a ICT Operational Support Band 5 within the South Eastern Health and Social Care Trust (SEHSCT). Please find a response as follows:

- 1) I would like to know exactly where I placed out of all the candidates who participated in the interview?

You ranked [REDACTED] for this recruitment process.

- 2) I would like to know if the post [REDACTED] was the only one to be pulled and why?

It was the only post withdrawn, as funding for the post was not available.

- 3) I would like to know for those candidates that were successful and have accepted a post, will they be doing the role that they have accepted in the location stated on the application form or can this be changed, If this is the case I would like to know the rules and regulations in regards to the organisation being able to offer a post to a candidate with the intention of having that person do a completely different job role in a different location that was previously agreed on the application form?

As this is a Trust wide waiting list for ICT Operations Support Officer Band 5 within SEHSCT the locations may vary based on available vacancies within the Trust. The Job description advises:

A Trustwide waiting list will be compiled for any similar Permanent / Temporary / Full-Time / Part-Time posts that may arise over the next 12 months'.

Candidates on this list can only be offered a position that matches the job description originally attached to the advertisement on our website (<https://jobs.hscni.net/>)

I hope that the information provided assists you. If you are dissatisfied in any way with the handling of your request, you have the right to request a review. You should do this as soon as possible or in any case within two months of the date of issue of this letter, as the BSO, along with all other public authorities are not obliged to accept internal review requests after this period has lapsed.

In the event that you require a review to be undertaken, you can do so by writing to

Information Governance Manager,
2 Franklin Street,
Belfast,
BT2 8DQ

If, following an internal review, carried out by an independent decision making panel, you remain dissatisfied in any way with the handling of the request, you may make a complaint under Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act, to the Information Commissioner's Office and ask that they investigate whether the BSO has complied with the terms of the Freedom of Information Act.

You can contact Information Commissioner at:

Website: www.ico.org.uk
Phone: 0303 123 1113
Email: casework@ico.org.uk
Post: Information Commissioner's Office
3rd Floor, 14 Cromac Place
Belfast
BT7 2JB

In most circumstances the Information Commissioner will not investigate a complaint unless an internal review procedure has been carried out. However the Commissioner has the option to investigate the matter at his discretion.

Yours Sincerely,

Karen Bailey
Chief Executive
